GOOD MORAL CHARACTER

Is of good moral character as determined by a thorough background investigation including a fingerprint search conducted of local, state and national fingerprint files and has not been convicted of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude. Moral turpitude is defined as an act of baseness, vileness, or depravity in the private and social duties which a person owes to another person or to society in general, contrary to the accepted and customary rule of right and duty between person and person. It is conduct that is contrary to justice, honesty or good morals. The following nonexclusive list of acts has been held by the courts to involve moral turpitude: income tax evasion, perjury, or its subornation, theft, indecent exposure, sex crimes, conspiracy to commit a crime, defrauding the government and illegal drug sales. Various factors, however, may cause an offense which is generally not regarded as constituting moral turpitude to be regarded as such. The offenses of assault, domestic abuse, or other offenses of domestic violence, stalking, and any offense in which a weapon was used in the commission are crimes involving moral turpitude. No applicant will be considered if convicted of a domestic violence offense. Domestic violence means “any offense whether or not explicitly described in statute as a crime of domestic violence, which has, as its factual basis, the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, committed by the victim’s current or former domestic partner or guardian.” 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(9). Convicted means and excludes from consideration for employment anyone whose conviction has been deferred, expunged, set aside, or who received a pardon. The character of a person is determined by past behavior. Many factors are relevant in this assessment.

The Department seeks applicants whose histories show good judgment, maturity, a sense of responsibility, and the respect of others. Several factors will be considered:

1. Conviction or commission of a felony or aggravated misdemeanor, as defined by Iowa law will disqualify an applicant. Conviction or commission of any other public offense will be evaluated.
2. A consistent pattern of unexplained failures to meet debt obligations will be evaluated.

5. Unlawful sale of ANY drug(s) will disqualify an applicant.
6. Unlawful use or experimentation of ANY drug, excluding marijuana and steroids, will disqualify an applicant.
7. Experimentation with marijuana or steroids will be evaluated.
8. Unlawful use of marijuana or steroids, within two (2) years of the application deadline date will disqualify an applicant.
